A City of Tukwila publication for our residential and business communities

MARCH/APRIL 2021
VOLUME 41, NUMBER 2

Tukwila: The City of Opportunity, the Community of Choice

Bringing vaccine to those without access

The City of Tukwila Mobile Vaccination Team (MVT) officially launched on March 1, 2021, with the support of the Mayor, City Council, City Administration and the Fire Chief. The MVT is staffed primarily by Tukwila firefighters/Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs). King County Health provides the Moderna vaccine to the team each morning for distribution in the community. The focus on the senior community is paying off as most senior housing sites have been vaccinated. The MVT also wants to identify Tukwila's homebound population unable to access a mass vaccination site. Because this community is very diverse with differing needs, the MVT is working to identify groups that will benefit from a visit from our team. If you have questions or suggestions? Please contact MVT coordinator Deputy Chief Norm Golden via email at Norm.Golden@TukwilaWA.gov.

New electric vehicle chargers in Tukwila

Seattle City Light has installed five new utility-owned electric vehicle (EV) chargers in the city, located at 13050 Interurban Avenue South. Tukwila is home to the first public EV charging station site the utility has opened outside of Seattle city limits.

The site includes four EV fast chargers and one Level 2 charger. Each fast charger can provide up to 150 kilowatts (kW) and has both CHAdeMO and CCS1 charge plugs compatible with most fast-charge EVs. The station also includes a 16.8 kW Level 2 charger that works for all EVs, including those not equipped with a quick-charge port.

Charging fees will vary depending on the time of day and charger type. Customers will be charged 35¢ or 21¢ per kilowatt-hour (kWh) at a Tukwila EV charger.

To learn more about City Light's EV programs and initiatives, visit their website at

Mayor's Message

Responding to Tukwila's senior housing need

Mayors and Councils over the years have been concerned about the lack of senior housing in Tukwila. We have readily recognized that the City's demographics can support senior housing. As part of my MBA program back in 2002, I wrote a marketing paper on the need for senior housing in Tukwila. I'm happy to say my thesis – 'the time is right to launch senior housing' – is coming to fruition because the market has recognized that need.

Tukwila is not the only city in King County to have a large population base of aging seniors. I'm excited about the recent senior housing developments here in Tukwila. Allow me to share them.

Our first housing to be recognized is by SHAG (Sustainable Housing for Ageless Generations), a Washington-based affordable senior housing nonprofit. The Tukwila Village Senior Living community is located at the corner of South 144th Street and Tukwila International Boulevard. In the summer of 2018, SHAG opened – and quickly filled – their Phase 1 and Phase 2 buildings for residents age 61 and older. This year we will see Phases 3 and 4 opening their doors. Expanded opportunities for independent and active senior lifestyles include theater, craft and game rooms, fitness center, outdoor areas including a roof-top pea patch, and proximity to a variety of retail sites.

Next up is Marvelle at Southcenter on Andover Park West, a 55-and-older market-based residential apartment living complex. Opening in early 2020, it is located in Tukwila's central business district, next to Hotel Interurban. Floorplans range from studios to one- and two-bedroom apartment homes. They provide access to fitness, lounge/bistro, courtyard with fire pit, spa, and arts & craft rooms, among other amenities. Even with COVID-19 unfolding as Marvelle opened, they have had success in housing senior residents in Tukwila near the Westfield Southcenter retail core.

Opening in June of this year, Holden Southcenter – located at 112 Andover Park East (across from Lowes) – will be the newest senior housing facility. Sitting adjacent to the Green River trail with some views of Mount Rainier, it will be Tukwila's first Assisted Living and Memory Care facility. Holden Southcenter will offer 107 apartment homes and 27 more in Memory Care. Its common areas will offer residents all-day dining with chef-prepared meals in the full-service dining room, along with a bistro/bar, fitness center, theater, and a rooftop courtyard with fire pits, gardens and outdoor seating. The facility will offer studio, one- and two-bedroom apartment homes. We welcome Holden Southcenter to Tukwila.

The vision of attaining senior housing in Tukwila as I wrote about in my MBA paper has taken much time and has had some false starts. Yet, it has kept the interest of Tukwila's Mayors, Council and residents for nearly two decades. I believe we are all thankful to have senior housing here in Tukwila and look forward to seeing more.

Allan Ekberg
Mayor, City of Tukwila

How Tukwila makes its voice heard

by Kate Kruller,
2021 Council President

Strong regional partnership is a key component of public service at the local level. Your Council has long prioritized robust participation on regional boards to ensure Tukwila's voice is counted in important policy matters. We accomplish this by either independently joining regional committees or by partnering with other cities through associations.

As you may know by hearing our reports during Council meetings, the Mayor and Councilmembers put in a lot of time serving on these regional groups. This allows Tukwila to have a seat at the table, representing YOU, while discussing important regional issues. I'd like to share a little bit about some of the organizations with which we work.

The Association of Washington Cities represents cities and towns before the State legislature, providing advocacy work, training, resources, and member-pooling programs. Councilmember Hougardy sits on the Board of Directors, Educational Advisory Committee, Equity Workgroup, and Nominating Committee. Councilmember Kruller sits on the Federal Legislative Priorities Committee.

Representing 38 King County cities, Sound Cities Association provides a voice to over a million people through advocacy, education, leadership, mutual support and networking. Councilmember Quinn serves on the Board of Directors, Councilmember Kruller serves on the Public Issues Committee, and Councilmember Delostrinos Johnson serves on the Equity & Inclusion Cabinet.

The Puget Sound Regional Council develops policies and coordinates decisions about regional growth, transportation and economic development planning within King, Pierce, Snohomish and Kitsap counties. Its members come from counties, cities, ports, transportation agencies and Tribal governments. Councilmember Kruller serves on PSRC's Transportation Policy Board and Regional Transit-Oriented Development Advisory Committee.

The National League of Cities is another organization that represents cities and towns to influence policy at the federal level. NLC also offers training and networking to share innovative ideas and solutions from leaders across the country. Councilmember Kruller serves on the Transportation & Infrastructure Services Federal Advocacy Committee, and Councilmember Seal serves on the Youth, Education and Families Council.

Besides these regional organizations, your Councilmembers represent you in a variety of other ways as well.

- Councilmember McLeod works with other cities and King County on the South King Housing and Homelessness Partnership and the Growth Management Planning Council.
- Councilmember Hougardy works in regional economic development and transportation via the Soundside Alliance for Economic Development Board, South County Area Transportation Board, Highline Forum, and Greater Seattle Partners Executive Council.
- Serving on the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission, Councilmember Quinn had a key role in the development of new rules to implement the Law Enforcement Training & Community Safety Act that came out of Initiative I-940.
- Councilmember Idan works on community issues by way of his relationships with organizations like OneAmerica, Tukwila Children's Foundation, and the Abu-Bakr Islamic Center.

To learn more about any of these efforts and our work with regional organizations, please reach out by phone or email. Contact information for each Councilmember is located on the back page of this newsletter. Your Council is proud of how our commitment to regional partnerships benefits the Tukwila community.

Fee increase for false alarms

As of January 1, 2021, a new assessment fee applies for excessive false alarms:

First alarm .....$0

Second & subsequent alarms .....$250 each

A false alarm is a signal from an alarm system that results in a response by Tukwila Police and/or Fire staff when no actual emergency requiring immediate response exists.

Generally caused by human error or equipment malfunction, false alarms are costly to the City and can misdirect valuable police and fire resources from a legitimate call. Responding to false alarms also has the potential to jeopardize the safety of police officers, fire fighters and community members alike

If false alarms happen frequently at the same location, this can cause neighbors to ignore the alarm, making the alarm less reliable and credible should a true emergency occur.

Interested in running for local office?

There are many reasons why residents choose to become involved in Tukwila government. Having a big picture vision of what our city can be, looking to effect positive change, helping bring the community together – all can be inspiration for candidates to roll up their sleeves. The strongest communities thrive in a spirit of collaboration, working toward shared objectives and finding innovative yet attainable solutions.

This year's election offers four opportunities to collaborate as a member of Tukwila's City Council. The Council is the policy-making body of the City, serving as the link between the residents of Tukwila and their municipal government. They are responsible for enacting and amending City laws, adopting the Biennial Budget, appointing citizen boards, committees and commissions, and providing guidance and direction for actions which affect the quality of life in Tukwila.

We Are the Future: Poems with a Voice for Peace

April is National Poetry Month, a celebration that was introduced in 1996 and spearheaded by the Academy of American Poets. The Academy of American Poets goal is to increase awareness and appreciation of poetry in the U.S. The City of Tukwila would like to honor and celebrate Tukwila youth poets from the Foster High School Stories of Arrival Refugee and Immigrant Youth Voices Poetry Project. This project has been ongoing for the past eight years co-directed by Foster High School English Language Learner teacher Carrie Stradley, and Project Founder and Teaching Artist Merna Ann Hecht.

We Are the Future: Poems with a Voice for Peace is a full color anthology of visual poems and self-portraits by immigrant and refugee youth from fifteen different countries. Each self-portrait and visual poem highlights the experiences of young people who have had to leave their homeland and the courage it takes to cross borders with aspirations to dream of a brighter future. These poems are reminders to all of us to dispel stereotypes, grow in our cultural awareness and broaden our compassion for others. The youth voices in this collection express the longing for a more peaceful and equitable world.

Limited editions with proceeds going directly to the project are available for purchase by contacting the project founder and co-director Merna Ann Hecht at: mernaanna@yahoo.com
